So it was resolved in the affirmative.

On motion by Mr. Du Val, the words "the Adjutant-General, five hundred dollars," at the end of the first section, were stricken out, and inserted so as immediately to precede "the clerk of the senate."

Mr. John W. Thomas proposed to amend the first section, by adding thereto the following: "to each of the Brigade Inspectors, fifty dollars."

Mr. Du Val offered as a substitute for the proposed amendment, the following: "to each of the Brigade Inspectors who shall send in their returns to the Adjutant-General as prescribed by law, fifty dollars."

And the question on the adoption of the substitute offered, being propounded, it was determined in the negative.

The question then recurred, and was propounded, on agreeing to the amendment proposed by Mr. J. W. Thomas, and it was determined in the negative.

The said bill, so amended as above, was then passed.

Mr. Banning offered the following message:

By the House of Delegates, March 8, 1827.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We propose with the concurrence of your honourable body, to invite his excellency the governor, on ——— afternoon, at 5 o'clock, to sign the engrossed bills.

We have appointed Messrs. ——— and ———, to join such gentlemen as may be named by your house, to present this invitation to his excellency.

Which was read the first time, and ordered to be laid on the table.

On motion by Mr. Stricker, the house agreed to proceed to the consideration of the bill, reported by Mr. Tyson,
